ACTION FAVORING JAPANESE PROTESTED AS 'IMPERIALISM'

From what Chiang, Yen, Ho, and Li are saying, these will be just as welcome. The old interminable war criminal, Yen Hsi-shan, stated publicly in Kuang-chow (Canton) that he would welcome foreign volunteers, including Japanese. Yen is well qualified in using Japanese troops to murder Chinese people. The skill of Chiang Kai-shek, Ho Ying-ch'ien, etc., in bringing a wolf into the house is also well-known. In the past they have used them half concealed; now they do it brazenly. The liberation army's power is too strong for these 30,000 Japanese troops to accomplish anything, but politically speaking, this is another big revelation of the KMT reactionaries betraying the nation and harming its people; it is another iron proof of American imperialistic interference in China's domestic politics and killing of Chinese people. This is what the Chinese people cannot permit. The Chinese people, in destroying these Japanese troops, will smash the imperialists' meddling and Kuomintang plots to bring the wolf into the house.

America's announcing of the cancellation of Japanese reparations and her sending of Japanese troops to take part in the war are interrelated. Japan's imperialist aggression in China and other Asiatic countries brought enormous calamity and injury. When the Japanese aggressors were finally defeated by the Allies, it was quite natural for the Allies to demand reparations.

Japanese reparations are a principle genuinely deduced from the Potsdam Declaration and from the Far Eastern Commission. They are the unanimous demand of the people of the Allied nations. If America takes advantage of her autocratic authority in controlling Japan to abrogate unilaterally the reparations, she is plainly going against the will of the Allied peoples. America's ruthless cruelty is motivated by:

1. The Chinese People's Revolution is nearing complete victory. The US fears that these reparations, which are concerned with heavy industry, will fall into the hands of the Chinese people.

2. The plots of American imperialism in China have failed; now they must strive to build up Japan to be a Far Eastern rampart against the Soviet and against the people. Therefore, American imperialism wishes to sustain Japan's heavy industry in order to turn Japan into an arsenal.

America's attempt to make Japan an anti-Soviet and anti-People arsenal is a reactionary policy contrary to the wishes of the Japanese and Asiatic peoples; the Japanese and Asiatic peoples will certainly oppose it to the very last until it is crushed.

Japan's reparations to China are destined for the Chinese people and not for the Kuomintang reactionaries, for during the war it was the people who suffered damages and not those reactionaries. They suffered no damage, but even grew rich at the expense of their country and by receiving stolen property. There is not the slightest reason for these reparations to go to the reactionaries. Therefore, there is no reason for the US to cancel Japanese reparations so that these goods do not fall into the hands of the Chinese people. It only shows the savage barbarity of American imperialism. The Chinese people will certainly oppose it to the end, until this irrational action of American imperialism is squashed.
